"FREE ENTERPRISE IN AMERICAN DEMOCRACY"

In a contest for the best editorial on "Free Enterprise" in the newspapers of the United States, Editor George W. Hopkins of the Lake Region, Eustis, Florida, won first place in the Herrick award made at the recent meeting of the National Editorial association in Milwaukee. His editorial not only merited the award, but is worthy of the widest distribution. Editor Hopkins said:

"Free enterprise is not a political term. Some people seem to think that as soon as one begins to advance the idea that American business, industry, commerce or agriculture was built up on free enterprise in this country, one must be a Republican.

"As a matter of fact, free enterprise is a basic American principle, as free from politics as the Constitution of the United States itself. It came into being with the Constitution. It emerged from such episodes in American history as 'the Boston Tea Party,' and drew its first baptism of blood at Bunker hill.

"The implication of free enterprise is simple, straightforward and honorable. It derives its rights from a natural human impulse; the right of the individual to the initiative, and to enjoy the liberties guaranteed in the Constitution; liberties bought with the blood of patriots who 'pledged their lives and their sacred honor' to establish those liberties.

"The American people have never surrendered their liberties to their representatives, or the government, which is of, by and for the people. Whatever liberties we have lost through these agencies has been usurped by them by assuming powers not found in the Constitution.

"Our form of government is definitely set up for Congress to follow. The President of the United States and the Congressmen have taken solemn oath that they will 'defend' the Constitution against all enemies.

"If Congress had dutifully considered this sworn obligation, free enterprise would today be a fact instead of a tradition.

"Congress can, and should, reverse its trend and return to the basic principles of the American enterprise system. If such action is not voluntary on the part of the Congressmen, the American people have the right to replace every mother's son who has by voice and vote indicated that he has little or no regard for Constitutional government.

"Free enterprise has financed two world wars. It has created more wealth among 130,000,000 people than exists in the rest of the world; it has enabled us to spend approximately 400 billions of dollars to train, equip and mechanize an army to fight for the principles of free enterprise for ourselves, and that other peoples may be enriched. Therefore, free enterprise is not a selfish system as claimed by some; it is not founded upon greed. It is based on human initiative and the right to create, share, enjoy and spend the wealth amassed by our individual and collective efforts as a people.

"As Democrats and Republicans, and especially as Americans, we will not surrender free enterprise to national socialism; to any system of paternalism; to bureaucracy or dictatorship. Such agencies have been the downfall of governments since the beginning of history, because they fail to recognize a fundamental human right—the right to 'life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness' and the right to the wealth the individual has honestly earned by creative genius and the sweat of the brow.

"Free enterprise is American democracy in action!"

Association Urges Full Cooperation

With schools opening for the fall term, School Safety Patrols will again be on duty at crossings used by children and motorists are urged by the California State Automobile association to cooperate with these young "Soldiers of Safety." They are on duty before and after school and during the noon hour. School and police officials, P. T. A. units and the automobile association join in sponsoring the patrols and in this appeal to drivers:

"The patrol boys hold their schoolmates at the curb until vehicular traffic stops and the crosswalk is safe. The patrol boys are trained not to leave the curb and they do not direct traffic. They depend on the cooperation of motorists to guide children safely across streets, preferably in groups."

"THANKS FOR HELPING OUT THIS SUMMER. YOU'LL BE ABLE TO DO AN EVEN BETTER JOB WHEN YOU'VE FINISHED YOUR SCHOOLING."

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKinn

"Yes, I'm sure your grandfather must have been a fine old Southern gentleman." That remark, uttered by a bored young Vassar girl, after her suitor has been enthusiastically extolling his forbear, is the keynote of Lt. Joseph Stanley Pennell's fine first novel, "The History of Rome Hanks."

LT. JOSEPH STANLEY PENNELL

"The History of Rome Hanks" is being compared by reviewers to the works of Thomas Wolfe, Proust, and James Joyce. However that may be, here is a young author of originality and distinction, who has written a very remarkable first novel.

John Bartlow Martin in "Call It North Country," a story of Upper Michigan, reports hearing this bit of wisdom from an elderly eccentric, who went in for long soliloquies: "I talk to myself for two good reasons: Number 1, I like to hear a sensible man talk. Number 2, I like to talk to a sensible man."

According to Life Magazine, John P. Marquand is now the most successful novelist in the United States. Says Life, "Book royalties on 'So Little Time' already exceed the movies' payment of $125,000, which means that Marquand has earned more than a quarter of a million dollars on this book alone (most of which, of course, will go to the government in income tax). Just this month Marquand was elected a judge of the Book-of-the-Month Club, which puts him near the very top of the literary whirl, at which he has poked considerable fun in his books, especially 'So Little Time.'"

"Dear Sir" by Juliet Lowell, a collection of wacky letters received by government agencies, cites this one from a distressed young lady addressed to the New York Division of the Selective Service Headquarters: "Please help me find my boy friend. I haven't seen him in two years. He has curly hair and blue eyes and is very handsome. He told me his name was Smith. Please send me the addresses of all the local boards and Army camps in the country so I can write and ask them too."

Here's how to make catsup and chili sauce!

SHADE your eyes and look real hard—and you can see the end of the tomato season! Now just glance in your pantry and count the bottles of catsup and chili sauce. The next step is to take advantage of the fresh tomatoes available now, so you'll have plenty of those good condiments for the winter and spring! (One happy fact: irregular or odd-sized tomatoes are fine for this use—another: putting up catsup and chili sauce is a relatively easy job.)

TOMATO CATSUP

3 large (about ¾ lb.) sweet red peppers	1½ cups vinegar
3 medium (about 1 lb.) onions	¼ cup sugar
1 bud garlic	2 tps. paprika
1 bay leaf	2 tps. mustard seed
35 medium (about 10 lbs.) ripe tomatoes	2 tps. celery seed
2 tps. salt	1 tps. whole cloves
	1 tps. whole allspice
	3 inches stick cinnamon

Wash vegetables. Remove seed cores from peppers. Grind peppers, onions and garlic in food chopper. Add to cut tomatoes, bay leaf and salt. Cook slowly in large kettle until tomatoes are soft, about 30 minutes, stirring frequently. Remove bay leaf and sieve tomato mixture. Return to kettle and add vinegar, sugar and paprika, mixing well. Add remaining spices tied in a bag. Cook slowly until thickened and volume is reduced about one-half, about 2 hours, stirring frequently. Remove spice bag. Pour immediately into hot sterilized fruit jars, filling to top, and seal. Makes about 4 pints.

CHILI SAUCE

42 medium (about 12 lbs.) ripe tomatoes	1 large head celery
10 medium (about 2 lbs.) onions	1 qt. vinegar
4 large (about 1 lb.) red sweet peppers	3 cups sugar
2 buds garlic (may omit)	1 tps. whole allspice
	1 tps. whole cloves
	2 inches stick cinnamon
	1 tps. grated nutmeg
	2 tps. salt

Wash vegetables. Peel and chop tomatoes. Peel onions and remove seed cores from peppers; grind onions, peppers and garlic in food chopper. Combine with tomatoes in large kettle; cook slowly for 2 hours, stirring frequently. Add vinegar, sugar, spices tied in bag, and salt. Simmer about 1½ hours longer, stirring frequently. Remove spice bag. Pour into hot sterilized fruit jars, filling to top; seal at once. Makes 8 to 10 pints.

No Opposition Against Proposition

Copies of the Ballot Arguments to Voters, issued by Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan at Sacramento, show no opposition registered against Proposition No. 1, the act providing a thirty million dollar bond issue, to be used by the Veterans' Welfare board in assisting California World War II Veterans to acquire homes and farms.

Patterned after the four bond issues adopted by California voters overwhelmingly in 1922, 1926, 1930 and 1934, enabling 20,000 World War I Veterans to secure farms and homes aggregating $89,000,000 in value, Proposition No. 1 on the November 7 ballot is receiving united and enthusiastic support from public-spirited Californians, according to state commander Ed W. Bolt of the American Legion, and chairman of the Veterans' Home and Farm committee.

Layer Cake Is "Tops"

By Frances Lee Barton

MARY had a little crowd
That relished fancy lunches
And every time that Mary baked

The crowd appeared in bunches.

"What makes the crowd love Mary so?"

The envious neighbors cried

"Oh it's the cakes that Mary bakes."

One of her guests replied.

Mocha Layer Cake.

2 cups sifted cake flour; 3 tablespoons breakfast cocoa; 2 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1/2 cup butter or other shortening; 1 cup sugar; 1 egg, unbeaten; 1/4 cup cold strong coffee; 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Sift flour once, measure, add cocoa, baking powder, and salt, and sift together three times. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat very thoroughly. Add flour, alternately with coffee, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla. Bake in two greased 8-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375° F.) 25 minutes, or until done. Spread Fluffy Mocha Frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake.

Dessert in a Jiffy

By Frances Lee Barton

THESE are the days when "Jiffy Desserts" are certainly popular.

Thousands of mothers are working in war plants.

Thousands are in Red Cross work.

Thousands are . . . but you know without my saying, how busy today's mothers are.

A "Jiffy Dessert" was once a house-cleaning or a wash-day dessert. Today it is needed several times each week, for even though we may still be engaged as housewives, we very likely have to prepare meals for workers on a number of "shifts."

Here's a Jiffy Pie recipe for your consideration. Can you imagine anything more simple or more tasteful?

Chocolate Topped Pies

Sprinkle grated unsweetened chocolate on bottom of baked pie shell while it is still warm. Turn vanilla or butterscotch cream or custard filling into crust. Sprinkle with grated chocolate. Place under broiler flame for 2 minutes, or until chocolate is melted.

Try sprinkling grated chocolate, over meringue-topped pies as soon as pies are removed from oven.

"The only way we can get home, Daisy, is for me to join the Army and for you to join the WACS!"

ACTION, BREVITY AND COMFORT—the rudimentary ABC of sportswear design—assume studied beauty in the white cotton playsuit preferred by CBS singer Anita Ellis for resort wear. Bearing the distinguishing embroidery trim of all Lanz Originals, the open midriff is a conservative forerunner of the trend toward crisp, tubbable cottons.

Issue Safety Rules For Bicyclists

An average of 30,000 people are injured each year as a result of bicycle accidents. More than one-half of these accidents, claim the Safety department of the National Automobile club, involve children between the ages of 5 and 14. In 1943 alone 450 children were killed while riding bicycles. With the beginning of schools this month, care should be exercised to insure the safety of every bicyclist. This means that each individual bicyclist should know how to handle his bicycle safely and expertly, and that he should obey the 10 rules of the bicycle code:

1. Obey all traffic laws, signs and signals.
2. Ride at the extreme right of the street with traffic.

3. Ride single file—never two or more abreast.
4. Keep both hands on the handlebars and refrain from indulging in stunts.
5. Refuse to hitch a ride on another vehicle.
6. Carry all packages in a basket or attach securely where they will not interfere with steering, pedaling or vision.
7. Always ride single and refrain from carrying a passenger on the handlebar.
8. Keep your headlamp and rear reflector or light in good working order; have a horn or bell—and use it.
9. Use arm signals when you turn.
10. Dismount and walk across busy corners.

Meat is needed in your everyday diet - especially during these days of long and strenuous hours. Our fighting men and women are given generous allowances of meat to maintain their health and general condition.

Civilians need it too, and those troublesome points are necessary to insure an equal division of the supply. You can get the maximum food value from your rations if you use your points for FARMERS quality meats.

During the summer vacation period our market will remain closed Monday each week.
